THE CITY TORONTO

As one of North America's top centres for life sciences and medical research, Toronto is advancing clinical and commercial innovations for better healthcare delivery and patient care.

Convening the 2026 Joint CDDW™-CLM Conference in a central hub such as Toronto ensures maximum participation from across Canada and beyond.

From leading biopharmaceuticals to ground-breaking medical technologies, Toronto is leading the way with:

- Canada's highest concentration of hospitals and research institutes employing more than 36,000 people
- Over 50% of the world's top 100 life sciences companies operate in the Toronto region
- Close-knit, collaborative culture of universities, technology incubators, start-ups, scientists and multinationals
- 30+ research institutes, 9 teaching hospitals, and Canada's top-rated 50 biopharmaceutical and Medtech companies
- Trailblazing innovations in areas like regenerative medicine and artificial intelligence for healthcare

JOINT CDDW™-CLM
CONFERENCE

Invitation to the Joint CDDW™-CLM Conference 2026

Dear friends and colleagues,

We are pleased to extend an invitation to participate in and support the Joint 2026 Canadian Digestive Diseases Week™ and Canadian Liver Meeting (CDDW™-CLM), taking place from February 27 to March 1, 2026, in Toronto, Canada. This year marks the 30th anniversary of CDDW™!

This flagship event is a collaboration between the Canadian Association of Gastroenterology (CAG) and the Canadian Association for the Study of the Liver (CASL), along with their affiliates, the Canadian Network on Hepatitis C (CanHepC), the Canadian MASLD Network (CanMASLD), and the Canadian HBV Network (CanHepB). It is the premier national gathering for Canada's gastroenterology and hepatology communities — including clinicians, researchers, nurses, and trainees.

CDDW™ 2026 marks a significant milestone — the 30th anniversary of this cornerstone event in Canada's digestive health landscape. We invite you to be a part of this landmark celebration as we honour three decades of scientific excellence, community, and innovation.

This milestone conference will deliver a dynamic program of keynote presentations, interactive discussions, hands-on workshops, and signature features such as the Mentorship Café and President's Gala. With leading experts sharing cutting-edge research and clinical innovation, CDDW™-CLM 2026 promises to be a catalyst for progress in digestive and liver health.

Beyond the scientific content, our networking and engagement opportunities are designed to spark meaningful connections among delegates, speakers, and industry leaders. These moments of collaboration and idea exchange are integral to the conference experience — and often lead to lasting partnerships and new initiatives.

We invite you and your organization to join us as a valued sponsor of this important event. By partnering with us, you will gain exposure to key decision-makers and healthcare professionals while demonstrating your commitment to advancing digestive and liver health in Canada.

Don't miss the opportunity to be part of this milestone year — we look forward to welcoming you to CDDW™-CLM 2026 for what is sure to be an impactful, engaging, and truly memorable event.
